

Career Transition Program

The WIFT-T Career Transition Program is the first program developed for mid to senior level professionals coping with the technological, economic and structural changes in the screen-based industry. The program will enhance participants' ability to find suitable work and will facilitate their career transition within and outside film, television and other screen-based media.

"I have definitely grown from this course. I learned so much about the industry, where it is heading, and also about myself and how to better market my abilities. I have gained an inner confidence." – Karen Loftus, Interactive Ontario

The WIFT-T Career Transition Program takes place over six consecutive Wednesdays, from 9 AM to 5 PM, beginning September 22, 2010. All sessions are held in downtown Toronto and are accessible by public transportation.

Cost | WIFT-T members $729 (+ HST), Non-members $829 (+ HST)

WIFT-T recognizes some individuals may need to discuss a payment plan. Please contact Heather Kanabe, WIFT-T Programming & Business Affairs Manager, at hjkanabe@wift.com or 416.322.3430 ext. 222.

Bursaries through the Foundation for Women in Film & Television – Toronto

Four bursaries covering the full cost of the program are available to women from any of the following groups: Aboriginal, visible minority, woman with a disability, woman with limited financial means. Visit www.wift.com for a Career Transition Program Bursary Application Form and details on the application process.

Bursary Application Deadline | Friday, July 23

Application Process

Visit www.wift.com for a Programming Registration Form and the application process. Applications are reviewed by a committee of WIFT-T staff and other screen-based media professionals. Enrollment is limited to 25 participants.

General Application Deadline | Friday, July 30

Presenting Partner

Supporting Partner

media
INTELLIGENCE.ca